I Remember when.....

The Fair was the biggest event for the summer. It is time to bring out the kid in all of us and support your Clark County Fair and Rodeo. The fairgrounds are located at 1301 West Whipple Ave in Logandale, Nevada. Just a short drive from Las Vegas.

GENERAL TICKET INFORMATION:

Discount tickets may be purchased online up to 10:00 pm the day before the Fair opens. Tickets purchased will be mailed to the address provided via telephone or Internet sales. Tickets purchased after April 4th will be held at the "Will Call Office" at the main entrance to the fairgrounds. Identification or proof of purchase is required to pick up tickets.

Fair Admission is required for all patron's ages 5 and older.

Presale Discount admission $7.00

Presale Season Pass (All 4-Days) $21.00

Gate General Admission (13-59) $9.00

Gate Senior Admission (60+) $7.00

Gate Child Admission (5-12) $7.00

Concert tickets are $28.00 which includes fair admission. This year Lonestar will be playing on Friday, April 11, 2014 at 9:30 p.m. Too late to attend the concert, do worry, the Plaza Stage has entertainment from Michael Peterson; The Alley Cats; Tyzen, Master Hypnotist; Maddie Wilson; and Michael Griffin, escape artist. For showtimes visit the fair and rodeo website <http://www.ccfair.com/content/plaza/index.html?page=plazastage>.

PRCA rodeo is scheduled for Thursday and Sunday at 6:00 p.m. Friday and Saturday's performances will begin at 7:00 p.m. Limited seating is available for each performance. All seats are reserved. For more information on ticket prices for the rodeo visit <http://www.ccfair.com/index.html?page=ticketinfo>.

Besides entertainment, there are the exhibits that a fair has to offer such as fine arts; home arts; home science; photography; and creative arts. We can not forget the horticulture, small animals and livestock shows that we all come to appreciate at the fair.

To me the fair was always a day to indulge myself in culinary items that are associated with the fair: corndogs, cotton candy, roasted corn on the cob, Navajo tacos (fry bread), and funnel cake.

If shopping is your thing then you will want to check out the vendors that peddle their wares.

Of course we cannot have a fair without the rides and the carnival games that are sure to amuse the young and old alike. There is an additional fee to ride the rides. More information on the ride tickets can be found on the Clark County Fair and Rodeo website.

As a service to the community, the fair welcomes groups or organizations to visit the Fair on Thursday and Friday mornings. Thousands of school kids as well as senior citizen organizations have enjoyed the Fair the past several years. Check with your local Clark County Parks and Recreation center to see if they are going to take advantage of this program.

There is still a little bit of inner youth in all of us. Go enjoy a day at the fair.

For sunlight after showers -

Miles and miles of Irish smiles

For golden happy hours—

Shamrocks at your doorway

For luck and laughter too,

And a host of friends that never ends

Each day your whole life through!

SENIORS UNITED CREED ESTABLISHED BY JULIAN AND LILIAN WALLACE

Seniors United was created as an inspirational medium for seniors. It's purpose is to educate, promote and protect the rights of seniors.

The needs of seniors differ from younger citizens. It is important to have an organization devoted to our place in the community and to promote it's continued growth.

The members of Seniors United want to share experiences with others. Nonpartisan and nonsectarian, we are very actively involved in the political structure of our state and country. Forums are varied to benefit the needs of the community and to discuss political issues. Guest speakers come from all areas.

It is with pride that we are seniors and are doubly proud to be members of Seniors United. The pride continues in our many accomplishments and in the good name we have established in the community. Our goal is to develop plans for a great tomorrow and to make it happen.

Everyone is welcome, young to old and from every walk of life.
